

JSON + Config File Demo

The virtual installation loads from a configuration file describing the start states of each element. The configuration file is JSON. This tool provides a simple means of loading, validating, editing, and saving a JSON file locally and via a URL. There are online tools that do this. The value of this demo is in having a set of classes that can be used by the virtual installation.

<https://openprocessing.org/sketch/2327591>